

Odd Trifles.

It is better to spank than to spoil the baby.

Whittaker's ears will long be remembered.

The boom of a politician is not all his fancy paints it.

The deaths of letters in post offices are uncalled for.

Old fashions come round again, and hoops are not far away.

The sparrows are little thieves, but they don't do the robin.

At this season dogs are expecting new fashions in muzzling.

There is no profit in call loans if they will not come when called.

That Kearney has been beaten is shown by the many stripes he wears.

A woman's idea of recklessness is crossing a field in which a cow is feeding.

There is a tendency to palm off electrocabbagare cigars for a genuine Havana.

"The end crowns the work" in most things, but in base-ball it's the big-inning.

Why is it necessary for a man to rise and stand on his feet to make a "set" speech?

Courtney is very rowdy and there are fears that he will break his new rigging.

A lady recently lectured in Detroit on "Burns," but failed to tell what would cure 'em.

A New Orleans colored man says he "members when dey was diggin' de Tombigbee river."

"Let me see your paper a moment, dear?" Husband: Yes, as soon as we get to the tunnel."

Persons who jump at conclusions are sure to leave a theatre before the curtain is half-way down.

If a man who can raise a barrel is nominated it can only be on account of his purse-psonal strength.

Dr. Holmes says the American who is continually pronouncing his own name is simply a cuckoo.

The mate of a schooner recently lost his life attempting to take in the spunk after a squall had struck.

A Texas robber was recently knocked down and robbed of $2, and one more newspaper passed in his checks.

It has been figured out that it takes just fifteen minutes to learn to be an astrologer well enough to bamboozle fools.

"Our new Constitution has one very weak spot," said Dennis Kearney: "it should have provided a Board of Pardons."

The Chicago type of a girl has a hon-pareil head on a brevior body and long primer feet—typographically speaking as it were.

We don't see what good it will do Gibert and Sullivan to copyright their Penzance piece, as it is not good until it is pirated.

The ten commandments would not be a bad platform; but it is feared the majority of candidates are unwilling to run on them.

An editor who thinks he knows all about farming says in speaking about strawberries, the best way to raise them is with a spoon.

It is said that "All things come to him who will wait;" but at the restaurant table that depends somewhat upon the waiter.

Secretary Everts is to deliver a speech or two during the coming campaign—provided the campaign is sufficiently protracted.

If telephones come into use for spreading sermons, the man who passes the contribution box will need a horse and carriage.

An absent minded printer once made the line, "From grave to gay, from lively to severe, read;" "From grave to gay, from pica to brevier."

Missus—Bridget, didn't you hear me call? Bridget—Yis, mum; but ye towd me the other day never to answer ye back—and I didn't.

Gratly to his disgust, the foreman of the jury, after a copious exhortation, replied, "You just wait a little, old hoss, and we'll tell you."

It is said that a coon can be caught by leaving whisky in the vicinity, but the average hunter would rather drink the whisky and take his chances on the coon.

The exasperated owner of a corner store in Augusta, Me., has put up a sign reading: "Wanted, the ten laziest men in town—to loaf on this corner."

When a paper speaks of Annie Louise Cary making a "flying visit to her Maine home," one can not help wondering if the editor ever saw Annie Louise.

An Irish newspaper says: "In the absence of all the editors, the publishers have succeeded in securing the services of a gentleman to edit the paper this week."

A young lady with a taste for painting can in about six months so decorate a room that a visitor is bothered to know whether it is a private house or a faro bank.

A French newspaper points out how the passion for gambling is shown in England, so that even in wedding notices it is necessary to state that there were "no cards."

Ralph Waldo Emerson keeps two cows and milks them himself. Perhaps some of his brightest thoughts have come to him while being kicked half-way across the stable.

There are several successful cases of nose-grafting, but if surgical science will discover some way to graft a man's nose on to his own business exclusively, we will call it a success.

The whole interior of a church in Norway, including its bas-reliefs, is made of paper. If that church was in this country at the present time, it would be the highest priced church in America.

LITERARY REVOLUTION and UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE.

An Encyclopedia in 20 vols., over 16,000 pages, 10 per cent. more matter than any Encyclopedia ever before published in this country, and sold handsomely and well bound, in cloth for $10, in half morocco for $15, and printed on fine heavy paper, wide margins, bound in half Russia, gilt top, for $30—an enterprise so extraordinary that its success, beyond all precedent in book publishing, may be fairly claimed to inaugurate a LITERARY REVOLUTION.

THE LIBRARY OF UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE is a reprint entire of the last (1879) Edinburgh edition of "Chamber's Encyclopedia," with about 40 per cent. of new matter added, upon topics of special interest to American readers, thus making it equal in character to any similar work, better than any other suited to the wants of the great majority of those who consult works of reference, and altogether the latest Encyclopedia in the field.

Specimen Volumes in either style will be sent for examination with privilege of return on receipt of proportionate price per volume.

Special Discounts to all early subscribers, and extra discounts to clubs. Full particulars with descriptive catalogue of many other standard works equally low in price, sent free.

Leading principles of the American Book Exchange:

- I. Publish only books of real value.
- II. Work upon the basis of present cost of making books, about one half what it was a few years ago.
- III. Sell to buyers direct, and save them the 50 to 60 per cent. commission commonly allowed to dealers.
- IV. The cost of books when made 10,000 at a time is but a fraction of the cost when made 500 at a time—adopt the low price and sell the large quantity.
- V. Use good type, paper, etc., do careful printing, and strong, neat binding, but avoid all "padding," fat and heavily leaded type, spongy paper and gaudy binding, which are so commonly resorted to to make books appear large and fine, and which greatly add to their cost, but do not add to their value.
- VI. To make $1.00 and a friend is better than to make $5.00 and an enemy.

UNPRECEDENTED!

The Best and Cheapest Weekly Newspaper in America!

The St. Louis Weekly Post-Dispatch.

A Virtual Newspaper Gift to the Farmers of the West.

The publisher of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, with a view to placing the Weekly in the hands of every Democrat in Missouri and of the West, during this critical Presidential contest, will send the Weekly Post-Dispatch, free of postage, to any post-office in the United States—

THREE MONTHS FOR 30 CENTS.

This is actually more than the cost of the whole paper. In other words, for five cents per month you can have a large eight-page journal of forty-eight columns—much interesting reading matter every week to fill a little book.

Market reports, Agricultural gleanings, fresh Telegraphic news, Household hints, entertaining stories, miscellany and all the features of a first class weekly newspaper—a complete mirror of all of the events of the week.

In making this extraordinary proposition the publisher is actuated by a desire to build up a large circulation, and to aid the cause of DEMOCRACY in the final struggle against IMPERIALISM and CENTRALIZATION. Only the prosperity of the Daily Post-Dispatch enables him to furnish the Weekly at absolutely less than the cost of the white paper upon which it is printed.

Remember that for Thirty Cents or Ten Three-Cent Postage Stamps you can have the Weekly Post-Dispatch sent to you by mail, free of postage, for 3 months.

That for twenty-one cents or seven postage stamps, you can have the Weekly Post-Dispatch mailed to you for Three Months, free of postage.

These terms are especially arranged for single postage stamp subscriptions—a convenience that will be readily appreciated.

THE WEEKLY POST-DISPATCH is regarded by the press everywhere as a reliable, live newspaper. Its Democracy is inspired by the greatest leaders of the party, and of the most positive and aggressive character.

By way of inducement to friends to get up Clubs at the new and unequalled rates, we will send a copy of the Weekly for six months to any person who will forward us TEN subscriptions for that period. For FIFTY names we will furnish the Daily Post-Dispatch for six months.

We want ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND subscribers for the Weekly Post-Dispatch at these marvellously low rates, and we expect to have them. Every true friend of Democracy is requested to place this prospectus under the eyes or within the reach of his neighbors.
